

3 Let not mercy and truth forsake thee; bind them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thine heart:

4 So shalt thou find favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man.

5 ¶ Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways and he shall prosper.

6 Be not weary in well-doing: for in due season thou shalt reap, if thou do not faint.

My Time with God

Student Edition

My Time With God: Student Edition

is a Bible reading plan provided as a tool for you to listen and respond to Jesus on your own. If you are new to reading your Bible on your own and are struggling to keep up, consider reading only the New Testament/Writings as you learn the habit of daily time with Jesus.

You already may have some tools in your fanny pack to help you engage with God's Word, but if you don't, here are some helpful tips:

Spend time talking with God and listening to Him; when you hang out with Jesus it is a conversation. Include prayer throughout your time.

It might be easy to read fast, but read slow, maybe two or three times to give yourself time to hear from God.

Here are some good questions to ask each day you read God's word. Many people find it helpful to journal their answers and thoughts.

1. What does this have to say about God?
2. What does this have to say about me?
3. What is my response to these truths?

What are we jumping into?

Nov 30	Catch Up Day

For length of days, and peace, shall they add thee.

3 Let not mercy and truth forsake thee; bind them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thine heart:

4 So shalt thou find favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man.

5 ¶ Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall prosper thee. Be not vexed with the angry man; nor be thou vexed with the man of wrongs; for thou shalt be as a reed shaken in the water: but thou shalt be as a tree planted by the water, which shall bring forth his fruit in due season, and he shall not be vexed when the wind shall blow, because his root is established.
